

CURRICULUM VITAE

Sharon M. Donnery

March 2026

Career Résumé

January 2025 - Date	ECB Representative to the Supervisory Board I am a member of the ECB's Supervisory Board which oversees the ECB's banking supervision tasks. My portfolio as a ECB Representative covers International coordination and supervisory policy including: Supervisory strategy and priorities; geopolitical risk; the international policy agenda; structural risk drivers and stress tests; and within ECB Banking Supervision communications and budget.
March 2016 - December 2024	Deputy Governor, Central Bank of Ireland I was a member of the Central Bank of Ireland's (the Bank's) Board (the Commission) and of the ECB's Supervisory Board (since 1 July 2022). From March 2016 to June 2022, I was as Alternate Member of the Governing Council of the ECB. From 1 July 2022, I was responsible for the Bank's financial regulation and supervision functions including credit institution and insurance supervision; regulatory policy and supervisory risk; and data analytics and inspections. This included leadership of circa 600 staff directly and the wider staff of over 2,000. From March 2016 – June 2022, I had executive responsibility for the Bank's central banking functions – financial stability; economics and statistics (including monetary policy); and financial markets and payments.
June 2019 - August 2019	Acting Governor, Central Bank of Ireland During a period of transition between Governor appointments, I was Acting Governor of the Bank, Chair of the Commission and member of the ECB Governing Council.
March 2014 - March 2016	Director of Credit Institutions I was responsible for the prudential supervision of credit institutions including the development and leadership of a Directorate of over 200 staff.
February 2013 - September 2014	Registrar of Credit Unions The Registrar is appointed by the Bank following consultation with the Minister for Finance. All of the Bank's regulation and supervision functions regarding credit unions are delegated to the Registrar.
December 2009 - January 2013	Head of Division, Consumer Protection I was responsible for the development, supervision and enforcement of conduct of business rules (which regulate how all firms deal with their customers).
May 2006 - November 2009 August 2003 - May 2006	Head of Division, Consumer Information Deputy Head of Division, Consumer Information I was responsible for delivery of the Bank's role to raise consumer awareness of the costs, risks and benefits of financial products and to examine competition issues in the market. During this time I was also Chair of the European Banking Authority (EBA) Group on Consumer Protection and Vice-Chair of the EBA Standing Committee on Financial Innovation.
January 1996 - August 2003	Economist and subsequently Senior Economist , Monetary Policy and Statistics Division, Central Bank of Ireland

Education and Training

1993	B.A. Honours, Economics and Politics, University College Dublin
1994	M.A. Economics, University College Dublin
1998	Certificate in Financial Services - Honours (Institute of Bankers/UCD); and Certificate in Mutual Fund Services – Honours (Institute of Bankers)
2014	Strategic Management of Regulatory and Enforcement Agencies, Executive Education Program, Harvard Kennedy School
2019	Certificate in Company Direction, Institute of Directors
2019	Diploma in Company Direction, Institute of Directors
2021	Leading Organisations in Disruptive Times, INSEAD

Other appointments and awards

2025	Member of the ECB High Level Task Force on Simplification
2025 – date	Member of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision
2021 – 2024	Co-chair of the Financial Stability Board Open-ended Funds Working Group which developed proposals to address vulnerabilities in OEFs stemming from liquidity mismatch as part of the FSB work program on Non-Bank Financial Intermediation
2022 – 2024	Chair of the Bank's Climate and Sustainable Finance Forum which is a consultative forum (comprising industry, academics and climate experts) to build a shared approach to managing the financial risks and opportunities posed by climate change.
2015 - 2018	Chair of the ECB High Level Group on Non-performing Loans (NPLs) set up to agree an approach to the supervision of euro area banks with high levels of NPLs
2016 - 2022	Chair of the ECB Budget Committee which reports to the ECB Governing Council regarding management of the ECB headcount, budget and resources
2020 - 2021	Co-chair of the ECB High Level Group on Eurosystem Collaboration – set up to make more effective use of resources in the ECB and euro zone central banks
2020 - 2022	Chair of the Bank for International Settlements Innovation Network - Group on Green Finance which uses innovation as a solution to problems relevant to central banks in the area of green finance and climate change
2020 - date	Adjunct Professor of Economics, Trinity College Dublin
2020 - date	Member of the Academic Advisory Committee, Department of Economics, National University of Ireland, Maynooth
2021 - 2023	Member of the Industry Advisory Council, School of Business, National University of Ireland, Maynooth
2017	Women's' Executive Network (WXN) Top 25 Women Award for Public Service
2019	Admitted to the Institute of Directors in London as a Chartered Director
2020	UCD Alumni Award in Social Sciences